FRANKENSTEIN
BY NICK DEAR,
BASED ON THE NOVEL BY MARY SHELLEY

NOVEMBER 9 – 18
STUDIO ONE THEATRE

This adaptation of Frankenstein is an exciting, thought-provoking investigation into the struggle for immortality and power and the dark, hidden world of a man of science. This timeless story is an incredibly relevant cautionary tale in our contemporary era of gene manipulation and cloning. Social considerations abound when Dr. Frankenstein secretly builds a creature using corpses, and the resulting creature exposes humanity's insatiable fear of the "other." Frankenstein is equally the sad story of family, love, and environment that spawned the science fiction horror genre.

THE GOVERNMENT INSPECTOR
BY NIKOLAI GOGOL

A SEASON OF LAUGHS
2017-2018

SEPTEMBER 29 – OCTOBER 8
STUDIO ONE THEATRE

The Government Inspector is a laugh-out-loud, satirical comedy that takes aim at greed, stupidity, and political corruption. Written in 1836, it remains a remarkably relevant play at politicians who use government to line their own pockets. When Inspector A. Yakovlev comes and his servant, mistaken for an important government inspector, a town descends into a flurry of madness as the mayor and his cronies try to cover up their indiscretions and carry favor with the inspectors.

Incorruptible
BY MICHAEL HOLLINGER

A SEASON OF LAUGHS
2017-2018

FEBRUARY 16-25
STUDIO ONE THEATRE

Though set in the middle-ages, Incorruptible is a contemporary tale as an age-old problem: what to do if your monastery is going broke and you have to find the pope? In this hysterical, fast-paced farce, entrepreneurial and business ethics are treated with lower reverence and sharp, dark humor as a group of monks find an unconventional way of raising funds. The perfect comedy for our imperfect world.
